This section does not prevent consideration, in the purchasing of loans, of factors justified by business necessity, including requirements of Federal law, relating to a transaction's financial security or to protection against default or reduction of the value of the security. Thus, this provision would not preclude considerations employed in normal and prudent transactions, provided that no such factor may in any way relate to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
- (e) Discrimination in the terms and conditions for making available loans or other financial assistance.
1. It shall be unlawful for any person or entity engaged in the making of loans or the provision of other financial assistance relating to the purchase, construction, improvement, repair or maintenance of dwellings, or which are secured by residential real estate to impose different terms or conditions for the availability of such loans or other financial assistance because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

The appraisal includes all written comments and other documents submitted as support for the estimate or opinion of value.
3. Nothing in this section prohibits a person engaged in the business of making or furnishing appraisals of residential real property from taking into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
4. Practices which are unlawful under this section include, but are not limited to, using an appraisal of residential real property in connection with the sale, rental, or financing of any dwelling where the person knows or reasonably should know that the appraisal improperly takes into consideration race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

The interest in any such account shall accrue to the benefit of the tenant.

 2. Nothing in this part limits the applicability of any reasonable local, State, or Federal restrictions regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling.
- (c) State and federal elderly housing programs. The provisions regarding familial status in this part shall not apply to housing provided under any Federal or State program that the Administrator determines is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons, as defined in the State or Federal program. In making such determination, the Administrator shall use as guidance applicable standards as determined by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- (d) 62 or over housing.
 1. The provisions regarding familial status in this part shall not apply to housing intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older. Housing satisfies the requirements of this section even though:
 - (i) There are persons residing in such housing on September 13, 1988, who are under 62 years of age, provided that all new occupants are persons 62 years of age or older;
 - (ii) There are unoccupied units, provided that such units are reserved for occupancy by persons 62 years of age or over;
 - (iii) There are units occupied by employees of the housing (and family members residing in the same unit) who are under 62 years of age provided they perform substantial duties directly related to the management or maintenance of the housing.

2. For guidance on the application of paragraph 1. of this section, the Administrator shall refer to examples set forth in 24 C.F.R. Part 100Section 100.303(b), on 62 or over housing, and any other relevant sources.

(e) 55 or over housing.

1. The provisions regarding familial status shall not apply to housing intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit, provided that the housing satisfies the requirements in Rules 186-2-.02\(5\)\(e\)2. or 2. \(i\) and the requirements of Rule 186-2-.02\(5\)\(e\)3.
2. The housing facility has significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons. "Significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons" include, but are not limited to, social and recreational programs, continuing education, information and counseling, recreational, homemaker, outside maintenance and referral services, an accessible physical environment, emergency and preventive health care programs, congregate dining facilities, transportation to facilitate access to social services, and services designed to encourage and assist residents to use the services and facilities available to them (the housing facility need not have all of these features to qualify for the exemption under this subparagraph); or
 - (i) It is not practicable to provide significant facilities and services designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons and the housing facility is necessary to provide important housing opportunities for older persons. In order to satisfy this paragraph 2. (i) of this section, the owner or manager of the housing facility must demonstrate through credible and objective evidence that the provision of significant facilities and services designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons would result in depriving older persons in the relevant geographic area of needed and desired housing. The following factors, among others, are relevant in meeting the requirements of this paragraph 2. (i) of this section:
 - (I) Whether the owner or manager of the housing facility has endeavored to provide significant facilities and services designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons either by the owner or by some other entity. Demonstrating that such services and facilities are expensive to provide is not alone sufficient to demonstrate that the provision of such services is not practicable.

- (II) The amount of rent charged, if the dwellings are rented, or the price of the dwellings, if they are offered for sale.
 - (III) The income range of the residents of the housing facility.
 - (IV) The demand for housing for older persons in the relevant geographic area.
 - (V) The range of housing choices for older persons within the relevant geographic area.
 - (VI) The availability of other similarly priced housing for older persons in the relevant geographic area. If similarly priced housing for older persons with significant facilities and services is reasonably available in the relevant geographic area, then the housing facility does not meet the requirements of this paragraph 2. (i) of the section.
 - (VII) The vacancy rate of the housing facility.
3. At least 80% of the units in the housing facility are occupied by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit except that a newly constructed housing facility for first occupancy after March 12, 1989, need not comply with this paragraph 3. of this section until 25% of the units in the facility are occupied; and
- (i) The owner or manager of a housing facility publishes and adheres to policies and procedures which demonstrate an intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons 55 years of age or older. The following factors, among others, are relevant in determining whether the owner or manager of a housing facility has complied with the requirements of this paragraph 3. (i) of this section:
 - (I) The manner in which the housing facility is described to prospective residents.
 - (II) The nature of any advertising designed to attract prospective residents.
 - (III) Age verification procedures.

- (IV) Lease provisions.
- (V) Written rules and regulations.
- (VI) Actual practices of the owner or manager in enforcing relevant lease provisions and relevant rules or regulations.

- 4. Housing satisfies the requirements of this section even though:
 - (i) On September 13, 1988, under 80% of the occupied units in the housing facility are occupied by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit, provided that at least 80% of the units that are occupied by new occupants after September 13, 1988, are occupied by at least one person 55 years of age or older.
 - (ii) There are unoccupied units, provided that at least 80% of such units are reserved for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or over.
 - (iii) There are units occupied by employees of the housing (and family members residing in the same unit) who are under 55 years of age provided they perform substantial duties directly related to the management or maintenance of the housing.
- 5. For guidance on the application of this Rule, the Administrator shall refer to the examples set forth in 24 C.F.R. Part 100 Section 100.304(e), on 55 or over housing, and any other relevant sources.

(6) INTERFERENCE, COERCION OR INTIMIDATION.

- (a) Prohibited interference, coercion or intimidation.
 - 1. This subpart provides the Commission's interpretation of the conduct that is unlawful under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-222 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law.
 - 2. It shall be unlawful to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of; or on account of that person having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of that person having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected by this rule.
 - 3. Conduct made unlawful under this rule includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (i) Coercing a person, either orally, in writing, or by other means, to deny or limit the benefits provided that person in connection with the sale or rental of a dwelling or in connection with a residential real estate-related transaction because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
- (ii) Threatening, intimidating or interfering with persons in their enjoyment of a dwelling because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin of such persons, or of visitors or associates of such persons.
- (iii) Threatening an employee or agent with dismissal or an adverse employment action, or taking such adverse employment action, for any effort to assist a person seeking access to the sale or rental of a dwelling or seeking access to any residential real estate-related transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin of that person or of any person associated with that person.
- (iv) Intimidating or threatening any person because that person is engaging in activities designed to make other persons aware of; or encouraging such other persons to exercise, rights granted or protected by this part.
- (v) Retaliating against any person because that person has made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in a proceeding under the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended.

Where the information constitutes a complaint within the meaning of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, and this part and is furnished by an aggrieved person it will be considered to be filed under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(f\).

2. Information submitted to the Administrator by the aggrieved person or persons may be made available to any other Federal, State or local agency having an interest in the matter. In making available such information, steps will be taken to protect the confidentiality of any informant or complainant where desired by the informant or complainant.
- (b) Who may file complaints. Any aggrieved person or the Administrator may file a complaint no later than one year after an alleged discriminatory housing practice has occurred or terminated. The complaint may be filed with the assistance of an authorized representative of an aggrieved person, including any organization acting on behalf of an aggrieved person.
- (c) Persons against whom complaints may be filed.
1. A complaint may be filed against any person alleged to be engaged, to have engaged, or to be about to engage, in a discriminatory housing practice.

 3. Complaints may be filed in person or by mail with the State, or with any local agency which has been certified by HUD as a "substantially equivalent" deferral agency under 24 C.F.R. Part 115 . Complaints filed with a substantially equivalent local agency will be considered to be complaints dual filed with the agency under its own law, and with HUD under the Fair Housing Act. In any case where HUD has initiated an investigation or any action or proceedings against any person relative to any acts or omissions by such person which may be in violation of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, the Administrator has no authority to initiate or pursue against such person any investigation, civil action, or administrative enforcement covered by the provisions of the Act with regard to the same acts or omissions or facts or circumstances to which the federal investigation or proceedings are applicable.

(e) Form and content of complaint.

1. Each complaint must be in writing and must be signed and affirmed by the aggrieved person filing the complaint or, if the complaint is filed by the Commission, by the Administrator. The signature and affirmation may be made at any time during the investigation. The affirmation shall state: "I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct."
2. The Administrator may require complaints to be made on prescribed forms. Complaint forms will be available in offices of the Commission. Notwithstanding any requirement for use of a prescribed form, the Commission will accept any written statement which substantially sets forth the allegations of the discriminatory housing practice under the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, as a Georgia Fair Housing Law complaint. Personnel in these offices will provide appropriate assistance in filling out forms and filing a complaint.
3. Each complaint must contain substantially the following information:
 - (i) The name and address of the aggrieved person;
 - (ii) The name and address of the respondent;
 - (iii) A description and the address of the dwelling which is involved, if appropriate;
 - (iv) A concise statement of the facts, including pertinent dates, constituting the alleged discriminatory housing practice.

(f) Date of filing of complaint.

1. Except as provided in paragraph 2. of this section, a complaint is filed when it is received by the Commission, or dual filed with HUD in a form that reasonably meets the standards of Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(d\).
2. The Administrator may determine that a complaint is filed for the purposes of the one-year period for the filing of complaints, upon the submission of written information (including information provided by telephone and reduced to writing by an employee of the Commission) identifying the parties and describing generally the alleged discriminatory housing practice.

3. Where a complaint alleges a discriminatory housing practice that is continuing, as manifested in a number of incidents of such conduct, the complaint will be timely if filed within one of the last alleged occurrence of that practice.
- (g) Amendment of Complaint. Complaints may be reasonably and fairly amended at any time. Such amendments may include, but are not limited to: amendments to cure technical defects or omission, including failure to sign or affirm a complaint, to clarify or amplify the allegations in a complaint, or to join additional or substitute respondents. Except for the purposes of notifying respondents under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(i\), amended complaints will be considered as having been made as of the original filing date.
- (h) Service of notice on aggrieved person.
1. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Commissioner will notify, by certified mail or personal service, each aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint was filed. The notice will:
 - (i) Acknowledge the filing of the complaint and state the date that the complaint was accepted for filing.
 - (ii) Include a copy of the complaint.
 2. Advise the aggrieved person of the time limits applicable to complaint processing and of the procedural rights and obligations of the aggrieved person under Rules 186-2-.03\(2\)et seq. and 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq.
 3. Advise the aggrieved person of his or her right to commence a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law and Section 813 of the Fair Housing Act, in an appropriate state or United States District Court, no later than two years alter the occurrence or termination of the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will state that the computation of this two-year period excludes any time during which a proceeding is pending under this part or Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq. with respect to a complaint or charge based on the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will also state that the time period includes the time during which an action arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(b\)\(2\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, or Section 814(b)(2) of the Federal Fair Housing Act, is pending.

4. Advise the aggrieved person that retaliation against any person because he or she made a complaint or testified, assisted, or participated in an investigation or conciliation under this part or an administrative proceeding under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq., is a discriminatory housing practice that is prohibited under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-222 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended.
- (i) Notification of respondent; joinder of additional or substitute respondents.
1. Within ten days of the filing of a complaint under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(f\) or the filing of an amended complaint under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(g\), the Administrator will serve a notice on each respondent by certified mail or by personal service. A person who is not named as a respondent in a complaint, but who is identified in the course of the investigation under Rule 186-2-.03\(4\) of this part as a person who is alleged to be engaged, to have engaged, or to be about to engage in the discriminatory housing practice upon which the complaint is based may be joined as an additional or substitute respondent by service of a notice on the person under this section within ten days of the identification.
 2. The notice will:
 - (i) Identify the alleged discriminatory housing practice upon which the complaint is based, and include a copy of the complaint;
 - (ii) State the date that the complaint was accepted for filing;
 - (iii) Advise the respondent of the time limits applicable to complaint processing under this part and of the procedural rights and obligations of the respondent under this part and Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq., including the opportunity to submit an answer to the complaint within 10 days of the receipt of the notice.
 - (iv) Advise the respondent of the aggrieved person's right to commence a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, and under Section 813 of the Fair Housing Act, in an appropriate state or United States District Court, not later than two years after the occurrence or termination of the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will state that the computation of this two year period excludes any time during which a proceeding is pending under this part or Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq. with respect to a complaint or charge based on the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will also state that the time period includes the time during which an action arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-2 18(b)(2), or Section 814(b)(2) of the Fair Housing Act, is pending.

3. If the person is not named in the complaint, but is being joined as an additional or substitute respondent, the notice will explain the basis for the Administrator's belief that the joined person is properly joined as a respondent.
4. The notice will advise the respondent that retaliation against any person because he or she made a complaint or testified, assisted or participated in an investigation or conciliation under this part or an administrative proceeding under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) et seq., is a discriminatory housing practice that is prohibited under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-222 and under Section 818 of the Fair Housing Act.

(j) Answer to complaint.

1. The respondent may file an answer not later than ten days after receipt of the notice described in Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)\(i\). The respondent may assert any defense that might be available to a defendant in a court of law. The answer must be signed and affirmed by the respondent. The affirmation must state: "I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct."
2. An answer may be reasonably and fairly amended at any time with the consent of the Administrator.

(3) REFERRAL OF COMPLAINTS TO LOCAL AGENCIES.

(a) Notification and Referral to Substantially Equivalent Local Agencies.

1. Whenever a complaint alleges a discriminatory housing practice that is within the jurisdiction of a substantially equivalent local agency and the agency is certified or may accept interim referrals under 24 C.F.R. Part 115 with regard to the alleged discriminatory housing practice, the Administrator will notify the agency of the filing of the complaint and refer the complaint to the agency for further processing before the Commission takes any action with respect to the complaint. The Administrator will notify the local agency of the referral by certified mail. In no event shall the Administrator refer a complaint that is within the Administrator's jurisdiction to a local agency for handling, unless such agency has been certified by HUD as a deferral agency under 24 C.F.R. Part 115.
2. The Administrator will notify the aggrieved person and the respondent, by certified mail or personal service, of the notification and referral under paragraph 1. of this section. The notice will advise the aggrieved person and the respondent of the aggrieved person's rights to commence a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, and under Section 813 of the Fair Housing Act, in an appropriate state or United States District Court, not later than two years after the occurrence or termination of the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will state that the computation of this two year period excludes any time during which a proceeding is pending under this part or Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) with respect to a complaint or charge based on the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will also state that the time period includes the time during which an action arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(b\)\(2\), or Section 814(b)(2) of the Fair Housing Act, is pending.

- (b) Cessation of Action on Referred Complaints. After a complaint is referred under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(a\), the Administrator will take no further action with respect to the complaint, except as provided in Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(a\).
- (c) Reactivation of Referred Complaints.
 - 1. The Administrator may reactivate a complaint referred under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(a\) for processing by the Commission if:
 - (i) The substantially equivalent local agency consents or requests the reactivation;
 - (ii) HUD determines that, with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice, the local agency no longer qualifies for certification as a substantially equivalent local agency and may not accept interim referrals; or
 - (iii) The substantially equivalent local agency has failed to commence proceedings with respect to the complaint within 30 days of the date that it received the notification and referral of the complaint; or the agency commenced proceedings within this 30-day period, but the Administrator determines that the local agency has failed to carry the proceedings forward with reasonable promptness. The Commission will not reactivate a complaint under this paragraph 1. (iii) of this section until the Commission has conferred with the local agency to determine the reason for the delay in processing of the complaint. If the Administrator believes that the agency will proceed expeditiously following the conference, the Administrator may leave the complaint with the local agency for a reasonable time, notwithstanding the expiration of the 30-day period or a previous failure to carry the proceedings forward with reasonable promptness.

(d) Notification Upon Reactivation.

1. Whenever a complaint referred to a local fair housing agency under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(a\) is reactivated under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(c\), the Administrator will notify the substantially equivalent local agency, the aggrieved person and the respondent of the Commission's reactivation. The notification will be made by certified mail or personal service.
2. The notification to the respondent and the aggrieved person will:
 - (i) Advise the aggrieved person and the respondent of the time limits applicable to complaint processing and the procedural rights and obligations of the aggrieved person and the respondent under this part and Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq.
 - (ii) State that the Commission will process the complaint under the Georgia Fair Housing Law and that the local agency to which the complaint was referred may continue to process the complaint under State or local law.
 - (iii) Advise the aggrieved person and the respondent of the aggrieved person's rights to commence a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217 of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, and under Section 813 of the Fair Housing Act, in an appropriate state or United States District Court, not later than two years after the occurrence or termination of the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will state that the computation of this two-year period excludes any time during which a proceeding is pending under this part or Rule 186-2-.04\(1\)et seq. with respect to a complaint or charge based on the alleged discriminatory housing practice. The notice will also state that the time period includes the time during which an action arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(b\)\(2\), or Section 814(b)(2) of the Fair Housing Act, is pending.

(4) INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURES.

(a) Investigations.

1. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Administrator will initiate an investigation before the end of the 30th day after receipt of the complaint. The purpose of an investigation is:
 - (i) To obtain information concerning the events or transactions that relate to the alleged discriminatory housing practice identified in the complaint.
 - (ii) To document policies or practices of the respondent involved in the alleged discriminatory housing practice raised in the complaint.
 - (iii) To develop factual data necessary to make a determination whether reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, and to take other actions provided under this part.
 2. Upon the written direction of the Administrator, the Commission may initiate an investigation of housing practices to determine whether a complaint should be filed under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\)et seq.
- (b) Systemic Processing. Where the Administrator determines that the alleged discriminatory practices contained in a complaint are pervasive or institutional in nature, or that the processing of the complaint will involve complex issues, novel questions of fact or law, or will affect a large number of persons, the Administrator may identify the complaint for systemic processing. This determination can be based on the face of the complaint or on information gathered in connection with an investigation. Systemic investigations may focus not only on documenting facts involved in the alleged discriminatory housing practice that is the subject of the complaint, but also in review of other policies and procedures related to matters under investigation, to make sure that they also comply with the nondiscrimination requirements of the Georgia Fair Housing Law.
- (c) Conduct of Investigation.
1. In conducting investigations under this part, the Administrator will seek the voluntary cooperation of all persons to obtain access to premises, records, documents, individuals, and other possible sources of information; to examine record, and copy necessary materials, and to take and record testimony or statements of persons reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation.
 2. The Administrator may issue subpoenas and order discovery in aid of the investigation to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as would apply if the subpoenas or discovery were ordered or served in aid of a civil action in the superior court in which the investigation is taking place.

- (d) Cooperation of federal, state and local agencies. The Administrator, in processing Georgia Fair Housing Law complaints, may seek the cooperation and utilize the services of Federal, State or local agencies, including any agency having regulatory or supervisory authority over financial institutions.
- (e) Completion of investigation.
1. The investigation will remain open until the reasonable cause determination is made under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-211\(a\) or a conciliation agreement is executed and approved under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-209\(b\). Unless it is impracticable to do so, the Administrator will complete the investigation of the alleged discriminatory housing practice within 100 days of the filing of the complaint (or where the Administrator reactivates the complaint, within 100 days after service of the notice of reactivation under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(d\)). If the Administrator is unable to complete the investigation within the 100-day period, the Administrator will notify the aggrieved person and the respondent, by certified mail or personal service, of the reasons for the delay.
 2. In any event, the Administrator shall make a final administrative disposition of a complaint within one year of the date of receipt of a complaint, unless it is unable to do so. If the Administrator is unable to do so, the Administrator shall notify the complainant and the respondent, in writing, of the reasons for not doing so.
- (f) Final investigative report.
1. At the end of each investigation under this part, the Administrator will prepare a final investigative report. The investigative report will contain:
 - (i) The names and dates of contacts with witnesses, except that the report will not disclose the names of witnesses that request anonymity. The Commission, however, may be required to disclose the names of such witnesses in the course of an administrative hearing under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(e\) or a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217;
 - (ii) A summary and the dates of correspondence and other contacts with the aggrieved person and the respondent;
 - (iii) A summary description of other pertinent records;
 - (iv) A summary of witness statements; and

- (v) Answers to interrogatories.
- 2. A final investigative report may be amended at any time, if additional evidence is discovered.
- 3. Notwithstanding the prohibitions and requirements with respect to disclosure of information contained in Rule 186-2-.03\(5\), the Administrator will make information derived from an investigation, including the final investigative report, available to the aggrieved person and the respondent. Following the completion of investigation, the Administrator shall notify the aggrieved person and the respondent that the final investigation report is complete and will be provided upon request.

(5) CONCILIATION PROCEDURES.

(a) Conciliation.

- 1. During the period beginning with the filing of the complaint and ending with the filing of a charge or the dismissal of the complaint by the Administrator, the Administrator will, to the extent feasible, attempt to conciliate the complaint.
- 2. In conciliating the complaint, the Administrator will attempt to achieve a just resolution of the complaint and to obtain assurances that the respondent will satisfactorily remedy any violations of the rights of the aggrieved person, and take such action as will assure the elimination of discriminatory housing practices, or the prevention of their occurrence, in the future.

(b) Conciliation agreement.

- 1. The terms of a settlement of a complaint will be reduced to a written conciliation agreement. The conciliation agreement shall seek to protect the interest of the aggrieved person, other persons similarly situated, and the public interest. The types of relief that may be sought for the aggrieved person are described in Rule 186-2-.03\(5\)\(c\). The provisions that may be sought for the vindication of the public interest are described in Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(b\).
- 2. The agreement must be executed by the respondent and the complainant. The agreement is subject to the approval of the Administrator, who will indicate approval by signing the agreement. The Administrator will approve an agreement and, if the Administrator is the complainant, will execute the agreement, only if:

- (i) The complainant and the respondent agree to the relief accorded the aggrieved person;
- (ii) The provisions of the agreement will adequately vindicate the public interest; and
- (iii) If the Administrator is the complainant, all aggrieved persons named in the complaint are satisfied with the relief provided to protect their interests.

3. The Attorney General may issue a charge under Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(b\) if the aggrieved person and the respondent have executed a conciliation agreement that has not been approved by the Administrator.

(c) Relief sought for aggrieved persons.

1. The following types of relief may be sought for aggrieved persons in conciliation:

- (i) Monetary relief in the form of damages, including damages caused by humiliation or embarrassment, and attorney fees;
- (ii) Other equitable relief including, but not limited to, access to the dwelling at issue, or to a comparable dwelling, the provision of services or facilities in connection with a dwelling, or other specific relief; or
- (iii) Injunctive relief appropriate to the elimination of discriminatory housing practices affecting the aggrieved person or other persons.

2. The conciliation agreement may provide for binding arbitration of the dispute arising from the complaint. Arbitration may award appropriate relief as described in paragraph 1. of this section. The aggrieved person and the respondent may, in the conciliation agreement, limit the types of relief that may be awarded under binding arbitration.

(d) Provisions sought for the public interest.

1. The following are types of provisions which may be sought for the vindication of the public interest:

- (i) Elimination of discriminatory housing practices;
- (ii) Prevention of future discriminatory housing practices;

- (iii) Remedial affirmative activities to overcome discriminatory housing practices;
 - (iv) Reporting requirements;
 - (v) Monitoring and enforcement activities.
- (e) Termination of conciliation efforts.
 - 1. The Commission may terminate its efforts to conciliate the complaint if the respondent fails or refuses to confer with the Commission; the aggrieved person or the respondent fails to make a good faith effort to resolve any dispute; or the Commission finds, for any reason, that voluntary agreement is not likely to result.
 - 2. Where the aggrieved person has commenced a civil action under federal or State law seeking relief with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice, and the trial in the action has commenced, the Commission will terminate conciliation unless the court specifically requests assistance from the Administrator.
- (f) Prohibitions and requirements with respect to disclosure of information obtained during conciliation.
 - 1. Except as provided in paragraph 2. of this section and Rule 186-2-.03\(4\)\(f\)3., nothing that is said or done in the course of conciliation under this part may be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent administrative hearing under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) or in civil actions under Title VIII of the Fair Housing Act or The Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, without the written consent of the persons concerned.
 - 2. Conciliation agreements shall be made public, unless the aggrieved person and respondent request nondisclosure and the Administrator determines that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of the Georgia Fair Housing Law. Notwithstanding a determination that disclosure of a conciliation agreement is not required, the Administrator may make public tabulated descriptions of the results of all conciliation efforts.
- (g) Review of compliance with conciliation agreements. The Commission may, from time to time, review compliance with the terms of any conciliation agreement. Whenever the Commission has reasonable cause to believe that a respondent has breached a conciliation agreement, the Administrator shall refer the matter to the Attorney General with a recommendation for the filing of a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(b\)\(2\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law for the enforcement of the terms of the conciliation agreement.

(6) ISSUANCE OF CHARGE.

(a) Reasonable cause determination.

1. If a conciliation agreement under Rule 186-2-12-.02 has not been executed by the complainant and the respondent, and approved by the Administrator, the Administrator, within the time limits set forth in paragraph 4. of this section, shall determine whether, based on the totality of the factual circumstances known at the time of the decision, reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur. The reasonable cause determination will be based solely on the facts concerning the alleged discriminatory housing practice, provided by the complainant and respondent and otherwise, disclosed during the investigation. In making the reasonable cause determination, the Administrator shall consider whether the facts concerning the alleged discriminatory housing practice are sufficient to warrant the initiation of a civil action in state court.
2. In all cases not involving the legality of local zoning or land use laws or ordinances:
 - (i) If the Administrator determines that reasonable cause exists, the Administrator will immediately issue a charge under Rule 186-2-12-.02 on behalf of the aggrieved person, and shall notify the aggrieved person and the respondent of this determination by certified mail or personal service.
 - (ii) If the Administrator determines that no reasonable cause exists, the Administrator shall: issue a short and plain written statement of the facts upon which the Administrator has based the no reasonable cause determination; dismiss the complaint; notify the aggrieved person and the respondent of the dismissal (including the written statement of facts) by certified mail or personal service; and make public disclosure of the dismissal. Public disclosure of the dismissal shall be by issuance of a press release, except that the respondent may request that no release be made. Notwithstanding a respondent's request that no press release be issued, the fact of the dismissal, including the names of the parties, shall be public information available upon request.
 - (iii) If the Administrator determines that the matter involves the legality of local zoning or land use laws or ordinances, the Administrator, in lieu of making a determination regarding reasonable cause, shall refer the investigative material to the Attorney General for appropriate action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(b\)\(1\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, and shall notify the aggrieved person and the respondent of this action by certified mail or personal service.

3. The Administrator may not issue a charge under paragraph 1. of this section regarding an alleged discriminatory housing practice, if an aggrieved person has commenced a civil action under an Act of Congress or a State law seeking relief with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice, and the trial in the action has commenced. If a charge may not be issued because of the commencement of such a trial, the Administrator will so notify the aggrieved person and the respondent by certified mail or personal service.
4. The Administrator shall make the reasonable cause determination after the Administrator forwards the matter for consideration. The Administrator shall make a reasonable cause determination within 100 days after filing of the complaint (or where the Administrator has reactivated a complaint, within 100 days after service of the notice of reactivation under Rule 186-2-.03\(3\)\(d\), unless it is impracticable to do so.
5. If the Administrator is unable to make the determination within the 100 day period specified in paragraph 4. of this section, the Administrator will notify the aggrieved person and the respondent, by certified mail or personal service, of the reasons for the delay.

(b) Issuance of Charge.

1. A charge:
 - (i) Shall consist of a short and plain written statement of the fact upon which the Administrator has found reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur;
 - (ii) Shall be based on the final investigative report; and
 - (iii) Need not be limited to facts or grounds that are alleged in the complaint filed under Rule 186-2-.03\(2\) et seq. If the charge is based on grounds that are alleged in the complaint, the Commission will not issue a charge with regard to the grounds unless the record of the investigation demonstrates that the respondent has been given notice and an opportunity to respond to the allegation.

2. Within three business days after the issuance of the charge, the Administrator shall:
 - (i) Obtain a time and place for hearing from the Board of Commissioners;
 - (ii) File the charge along with the notifications described in Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(c\) with the Board of Commissioners; and
 - (iii) Serve the charge and notifications in accordance with Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(c\).

(c) Election of civil action or provision of administrative proceeding.

1. If a charge is issued under Rule 186-2-.02\(6\)\(b\), a complainant (including the Administrator, if the Commission filed the complaint), a respondent, or an aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint is filed may elect, in lieu of an administrative proceeding under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) et seq., to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(a\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law.
2. The election must be made not later than 20 days after the receipt of service of the charge, or in the case of the Administrator, not later than 20 days after service. The notice of the election must be filed with the Board of Commissioners and served on the Administrator, the Respondent, and the aggrieved persons on whose behalf the complaint was filed. The notification will be filed and served in accordance with the procedures established under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) et seq.
3. If an election is not made under this section, the Administrator will maintain an administrative proceeding based on the charge in accordance with the procedures under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) et seq.
4. If an election is made under this section, the Administrator shall immediately notify and authorize the Attorney General to commence and maintain a civil action seeking relief under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(a\)\(3\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law on behalf of the aggrieved person in an appropriate Superior Court of the State of Georgia. Such notification and authorization shall include transmission of the file in the case, including a copy of the final investigative report and the charge, to the Attorney General.
5. The Administrator shall be available for consultation concerning any legal issues raised by the Attorney General as to how best to proceed in the event that a new court decision or newly discovered evidence is regarded as relevant to the reasonable cause determination.

(7) PROMPT JUDICIAL ACTION.

(a) Prompt judicial action.

1. If at any time following the filing of a complaint, the Administrator concludes that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this part, the Administrator may authorize the Attorney General to commence a civil action for appropriate temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the complaint. The commencement of a civil action by the Attorney General under these rules will not affect the initiation or continuation of proceedings under this part or administrative proceedings under Rule 186-2-.04\(1\) et seq.
2. If the Administrator has reason to believe that a basis exists for the commencement of proceedings against the respondent under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(a\) (pattern or practice cases), proceedings under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(c\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law (enforcement of subpoenas), or proceedings by any governmental licensing or supervisory authorities, the Administrator shall transmit the information upon which the belief is based on the Attorney General and to other appropriate authorities.

(8) Other Action.

(a) Other action by the Commission.

- (i) Refer the matter to the Attorney General for appropriate action (e.g., enforcement of criminal penalties under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-212\(c\) of the Act).
- (ii) Take appropriate steps to inform any other federal, state or local agency with an interest in the enforcement of respondent's obligations with respect to nondiscrimination in housing.

- (b) Action by other agencies. In accordance with O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-206\(c\), other state agencies, including any agency having regulatory or supervisory authority over financial institutions, are responsible for ensuring that their programs and activities relating to housing and urban development are administered in a manner affirmatively to further the goal of fair housing, and for cooperating with the Administrator in furthering the purposes of the Georgia Fair Housing Law.

 - (i) The notice shall state that a complainant (including the Commission, if the Commission filed the complaint), a respondent, or an aggrieved person on whose behalf the complaint was filed may elect to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(a\)\(1\) of the Act, in lieu of an administrative proceeding under this part. The notice shall state that the election must be made not later than 20 days after the receipt of the service of the charge. Where the Commission is the complainant, the Administrator must make the election not later than 20 days after the service of the charge. The notice shall state that the notification of the election must be served on the Chief Commissioner, the respondent, the aggrieved party on whose behalf the complaint was filed, and the Administrator.
 - (ii) The notice shall state that if no person timely elects under paragraph 2. (i) of this section to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(a\)\(1\) of the Act, an administrative proceeding will be conducted. The notice shall state that if an administrative hearing is conducted:

- (I) The parties will have an opportunity for a hearing at a date and place specified in the notice;
 - (II) The respondent will have an opportunity to file an answer to the charge within 30 days of the date of the service of the charge;
 - (III) The aggrieved person may participate as a party to the administrative proceeding by filing a timely request for intervention;
 - (IV) All discovery must be concluded 15 days before the date set for hearing.
- (iii) The notice shall state that if at any time following the service of the charge on the respondent, the respondent intends to enter into a contract, sale, encumbrance, or lease with any person regarding the property that is the subject of the charge, the respondent must provide a copy of the charge to the person before the respondent and the person enter into the contract, sale, encumbrance or lease.
- (c) Answer to charge.
1. Within the 30 days after the service of the charge, a respondent contesting material facts alleged in a charge or contending that the respondent is entitled to judgment as a matter of law shall file an answer to the charge. An answer shall include:
 - (i) A statement that the respondent admits, denies, or does not have and is unable to obtain sufficient information to admit or deny, each allegation made in the charge. A statement of lack of information shall have the effect of a denial. Any allegation that is not denied shall be deemed to be admitted.
 - (ii) A statement of each affirmative defense and a statement of facts supporting each affirmative defense.
- (d) Request for intervention. Upon timely application, any aggrieved person may file a request for intervention to participate as a party to the proceeding. Requests for intervention submitted within 30 days after the filing of the charge shall be considered to be timely filed.
- (e) Amendments and supplemental pleading.

1. Amendments By Right. The Commission may amend its charge once as a matter of right prior to filing of the answer.
2. By leave. Upon such conditions as are necessary to avoid prejudicing the public interest and the rights of the parties, the panel may allow amendments to pleading upon motion of the party.
3. Conformance to the evidence. When issues not raised by the pleading are reasonably within the scope of the original charge and have been tried by the express or implied consent of the parties, the issues shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleading and amendments may be made as necessary to make the pleading conform to evidence.
4. Supplemental pleading. The panel may, upon reasonable notice, permit supplemental pleading concerning transactions, occurrences or events that have happened or been discovered since the date of the pleading and which are relevant to any of the issues involved.

(f) Motions.

1. Motions. Any application for an order or other request shall be made by a motion which, unless made during an appearance before the panel, shall be made in writing. Motions or requests made during an appearance before the panel shall be stated orally and made a part of the transcript. All parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to respond to written or oral motions or requests.
2. Answers to written motions. Within five days after a written motion is served, any party to the proceeding may file an answer in support of, or in opposition to the motion. Unless otherwise ordered by the panel, no further responsive documents may be filed.
3. Oral argument. The panel may order oral argument on any motion.

(5) DISCOVERY.

(a) Discovery.

1. In general. This subpart governs discovery in aid of administrative proceedings under this Part. Except for time periods stated in these rules, to the extent that these rules conflict with discovery procedures in aid of civil actions in the Superior Courts of the State of Georgia in which the investigation of the discriminatory housing practice took place, the rules contained in the Civil Practice Act, codified at O.C.G.A. Section 9-11-1et seq., apply.

2. Scope. The parties are encouraged to engage in voluntary discovery procedures. Discovery shall be conducted as expeditiously and inexpensively as possible, consistent with the needs of all parties to obtain relevant evidence. Unless otherwise ordered by the panel, the parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the proceeding, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of documents or persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not grounds for objection that information sought will not be admissible if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
3. Methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods:
 - (i) Deposition upon oral examination or written questions;
 - (ii) Written interrogatories;
 - (iii) Requests for production of documents or other evidence, for inspection and other purposes, and physical and mental examinations;
 - (iv) Request for admissions.
4. Frequency and sequence. Unless otherwise ordered by the panel or restricted by this subpart, the frequency or sequence of these methods is not limited.
5. Completion of discovery. All discovery shall be completed 15 days before the date scheduled for hearing.
6. Not intervening aggrieved person. For the purposes of obtaining discovery from a non-intervening aggrieved person, the term "party" as used in this subpart includes the aggrieved person and whose behalf the charge was issued.

(b) Depositions.

1. In general. Depositions may be taken upon oral examination or upon written interrogatory before any person having the power to administer oaths.
2. Notice. Any party desiring to take the deposition of a witness shall indicate to the witness and to all parties the time and place of the deposition, the name and post office address of the person before whom the deposition is to be taken, the name and address of the witness, and the subject matter of the testimony of the witness. Notice of the taking of a deposition shall be given not less than five days before the deposition is scheduled. The attendance of a witness may be compelled by subpoena under Rule 186-2-.04\(6\).

3. Procedure at deposition. Each witness deposed shall be placed under oath or affirmation, and other parties shall have the right to cross-examine. The questions propounded and all answers and objections shall be reduced to writing; read by or to, and subscribed by, the witness; and certified by the person before whom the deposition was taken.
4. Objections. During a deposition, a party or deponent may request suspension of the deposition on grounds of bad faith in the conduct of the examination, oppression of a deponent or party, or improper questioning or conduct. Upon the request for suspension, the deposition will be adjourned. The objecting party or deponent must immediately move the panel for a ruling on the objections. The panel may then limit the scope or manner of taking the deposition.
5. Payment of costs of deposition. The party requesting the deposition shall bear all costs of the deposition.

(c) Use of deposition at hearings.

1. In general. At the hearing, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the Civil Practice Act, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice of the taking of the deposition, in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (i) Any deposition maybe used by any party for the purpose for contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness.
 - (ii) The deposition of expert witnesses, may be used by any party for any purpose, unless the panel rules that such use is unfair or a violation of due process.
 - (iii) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of the taking of the deposition was an officer, director, or duly authorized agent of a public or private corporation, partnership, or association that is a party, may be used by any other party for any purpose.

(iv) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the panel finds:

(I) That the witness is dead;

(II) That the witness is out of the State or more than 100 miles from the place of hearing, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition;

(III) That the witness is unable to attend to testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment;

(IV) That the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or

(V) Whenever exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open hearing, to allow the deposition to be used.

(v) If a part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, any other party may require the party to introduce all of the deposition that is relevant to the part introduced. Any party may introduce any other part of the deposition.

(vi) Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken. If a proceeding has been dismissed and another proceeding involving the same subject matter is later brought between the same parties or their representative or successors in interests, all depositions lawfully taken in the former proceeding may be used in the latter proceeding.

2. Objections to admissibility. Except as provided in this paragraph, objection may be made at the hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part of a deposition for any reason that would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were present and testifying.

(i) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the basis of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

- (ii) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless reasonable objection is made at the taking of the deposition.
- (iii) Objections to the form of written interrogatories are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding the interrogatories.

(d) Written interrogatories.

1. Written interrogatories to parties. Any party may serve on any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served. If the party served is a public or private corporation, a partnership, an association, or a governmental agency, the interrogatories may be answered by any authorized officer or agent who shall furnish such information as may be available to the party. A party may serve not more than 30 written interrogatories on another party without an order of the panel.
2. Responses to written interrogatories. Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath or affirmation, unless the party objects to the interrogatory. If a party objects to an interrogatory, the response shall state the reasons for the objection in lieu of an answer. The answer and objections shall be signed by the person making them, except that objections may be signed by the counsel for the party. The party upon whom the interrogatories were served shall serve a copy of the answers and objections upon all parties within 15 days after service of the interrogatories.

(e) Production of documents and other evidence; entry upon land for inspection and other purposes; and physical and mental examinations.

1. In general. Any party may serve on any other party a request to:
 - (i) Produce and permit the party making the request, or a person acting on the party's behalf, to inspect and copy any designated documents, or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things that are in the possession, custody, or control of the party upon whom the request is served;
 - (ii) Permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring; photographing, testing, or other purposes stated in paragraph 1. (i) hereof; or

(iii) Submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician.

2. Contents of request. The request shall:

(i) Set forth the items to be inspected by individual item or by category of items;

(ii) Describe each item or category with reasonable particularity;

(iii) Specify a reasonable time, place and manner for making the inspection and performing the related acts; and

(iv) Specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the physical or mental examination, and the person or persons who will make the examination. A report of the examining physician shall be made in accordance with O.C.G.A. Section 9-11-35\(b\) of the Civil Practice Act.

3. Response to request. Within 15 days of the service of the request, the party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response on the party submitting the request. The response shall state, with regard to each item or category:

(i) That inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested; or

(ii) That objection is made to the request in whole or in part. If an objection is made, the response must state the reasons for the objection.

(f) Admissions.

1. Request for admissions. A party may serve on any other party a written request for the admission of the genuineness and authenticity of any relevant document described in or attached to the request, or for the admission of the truth of any specified relevant matter of fact.

2. Response to request. Each matter for which an admission is requested is admitted unless, within 15 days after service of the request, the party to whom the request is directed serves on the requesting party:

- (i) A written statement specifically denying the relevant matters for which an admission is requested;
 - (ii) A written statement setting forth in detail why the party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matters; or
 - (iii) Written objections to the request alleging that the matters are privileged or irrelevant, or that the request is otherwise improper.
 - 3. The party to whom the request is directed may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny, unless the party states that it has made a reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny.
 - 4. Sufficiency of response. The party requesting admissions may move for a determination of the sufficiency of answers or objections. Unless the panel determines that an objection is justified, the panel shall order that an answer be served. If the Board determines that answer does not comply with the requirements of this section, the panel may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served.
 - 5. Effect of admission. Any matter admitted under this section is conclusively established unless, upon the motion of a party, the Board permits the withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Any admission made under this section is made for the purposes of the pending proceeding only, is not an admission by the party for any other purpose, and may not be used against the party in any other proceeding.
 - 6. Service of requests. Each request for admission and each written response must be served on all parties and filed with the Chief Commissioner of the panel.
- (g) Supplementation of responses.
- 1. In general. A party who responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement the response to include information acquired after the response was made except:
 - (i) A party is under a duty to timely supplement responses with respect to any question directly addressed to:
 - (I) The identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters; and

- (II) The identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at the hearing, the subject matter on which the expert witness is expected to testify, and the substance of the testimony.
 - (ii) A party is under a duty to timely amend a previous response if the party later obtains information upon the basis of which:
 - (I) The party knows the response was incorrect when made; or
 - (II) The party knows the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is, in substance, a knowing concealment.
2. By order or agreement. A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the panel or by agreement of the parties.

(h) Protective orders.

1. Upon motion of a party of a person from whom discovery is sought or in accordance with Rule 186-2-.04\(5\)\(i\)3., the panel may make appropriate orders to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense as a result of the requested discovery request. The order may direct that:
 - (i) The discovery may not be had;
 - (ii) The discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of time and place for discovery;
 - (iii) The discovery may be had by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery;
 - (iv) Certain irrelevant matters may not be the subject of discovery or that the scope of discovery be limited to certain matters;
 - (v) Discovery may be conducted with no one present other than persons designated by the panel;
 - (vi) A trade secret or other confidential research, development or commercial information may not be disclosed, or may be disclosed only in a designated way; or
- (i) Failure to make or cooperate in discovery.

1. Motion to compel discovery. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded, or a party upon whom a request is made under Rules 186-2-.04\(5\)\(d\) through 186-2-.04\(5\)\(f\) fails to respond adequately, objects to a request, or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move the panel for an order compelling a response or an inspection in accordance with the request. The motion shall:
 - (i) State the nature of the request;
 - (ii) Set forth the response or objection of the party upon whom the request was served;
 - (iii) Present arguments supporting the motion; and
 - (iv) Attach copies of all relevant discovery requests and responses.
2. Evasive or incomplete answers. For the purposes of this section, an evasive or incomplete answer or response will be treated as a failure to answer or respond.
3. Panel rulings. In ruling on a motion under this section, the panel may enter an order compelling a response or an inspection in accordance with the request, may issue sanctions under paragraph 4. of this section, or may enter a protective order under Rule 186-2-.04\(5\)\(h\).
4. Sanctions. If a party fails to comply with an order (including an order for taking a deposition, the production of evidence within the party's control, a request for admission, or the production of witness) the panel may:
 - (i) Draw an inference in favor of the requesting party with regard to the information sought;
 - (ii) Prohibit the party failing to comply with the order from introducing evidence concerning, or otherwise relying upon, testimony relating to the information sought;
 - (iii) Permit the requesting party to introduce secondary evidence concerning the information sought;
 - (iv) Strike any appropriate part of the pleadings or other submissions of the party failing to comply with such order; or
 - (v) Take such other action as may be appropriate.

(6) SUBPOENAS.

(a) Subpoenas.

1. In general. This section governs the issuance of subpoenas in administrative proceedings under this part. Except for time periods stated in these rules, to the extent that this rule conflicts with procedures for the issuance of subpoenas in civil actions in the Superior Courts of the State, the rules of the Civil Practice Act apply.
2. Issuance of subpoena. Upon the written request of a party, the Chief Commissioner or any member of the panel may issue a subpoena requiring:
 - (i) The attendance of a witness for the purpose of giving testimony at a deposition;
 - (ii) The attendance of a witness for the purpose of giving testimony at a hearing; and
 - (iii) The production of relevant books, papers, documents, or tangible things.
3. Time of request. Requests for subpoenas in aid of discovery must be submitted in time to permit the conclusion of discovery 15 days before the date scheduled for the hearing. If a request for subpoenas of a witness for testimony at a hearing is submitted three days or less before the hearing, the subpoena shall be issued at the discretion of the Chief Commissioner or any member of the panel, as appropriate.
4. Service. A subpoena may be served by any person who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. Service on a person shall be made by delivering a copy of the subpoena to the person and by tendering witness fees and mileage to that person. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Commission, witness fees and mileage need not be tendered with the subpoena.
5. Amount of witness fees and mileage. A witness summoned by a subpoena issued under this part is entitled to the same witness and mileage fees as a witness in proceedings in the Superior Courts of the State. Fees payable to a witness summoned by a subpoena shall be paid by the party requesting the issuance of the subpoena, or where the panel determines that a party is unable to pay the fees, the fees shall be paid by the CEO.
6. Motion to quash or limit subpoena. Upon a motion by the person served with a subpoena or by a party, made within five days of the service of the subpoena (but in any event not less than the time specified in the subpoena for compliance), the panel may:

- (i) Quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or for other good cause shown; or
- (ii) Condition denial of the motion upon the advancement, by the party on whose behalf the subpoena was issued, of the reasonable costs of producing subpoenaed books, papers or documents. Where the circumstances require, the panel may act upon such a motion at any time after a copy of the motion has been served upon the party on whose behalf the subpoena was issued.

7. Failure to comply with subpoena. If a person fails to comply with a subpoena issued under this section, the party requesting the subpoena may refer the matter to the Attorney General for enforcement in appropriate proceedings under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-218\(c\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law.

(7) PREHEARING PROCEDURES.

(a) Prehearing statements.

1. In general. Before the commencement of the hearing, the panel may direct parties to file prehearing statements.
2. Contents of statement. The prehearing statement must state the name of the party or parties presenting the statement and, unless otherwise directed by the panel, briefly set forth the following:
 - (i) Issues involved in the proceeding;
 - (ii) Facts stipulated by the parties and a statement that the parties have made a good faith effort to stipulate to the greatest extent possible;
 - (iii) Facts in dispute;
 - (iv) Witnesses (together with a summary of the testimony expected) and exhibits to be presented at the hearing;
 - (v) A brief statement of applicable law;
 - (vi) Conclusions to be drawn;
 - (vii) Estimated time required for presentation of the party's case;
 - (viii) Such other information as may assist in the disposition of the proceeding.

(b) Prehearing conference.

1. In general. Before the commencement or during the course of the hearing, the panel may direct the parties to participate in a conference to expedite the hearing.
2. Matters considered. At the conference, the following matters may be considered:
 - (i) Simplification and clarification of the issues;
 - (ii) Necessary amendments to the pleadings;
 - (iii) Stipulations of fact and of the authenticity, accuracy, and admissibility of documents;
 - (iv) Limitations on the number of witnesses;
 - (v) Negotiation, compromise, or settlement of issues;
 - (vi) The exchange of proposed exhibits;
 - (vii) Matters of which official notice will be requested;
 - (viii) A schedule for the completion of actions discussed at the conference;
 - (ix) Such other information as may assist in the disposition of the proceeding.
3. Conduct of conference. The conference may be conducted by telephone, correspondence or personal attendance. Conferences, however, shall generally be conducted by a conference call, unless the panel determines that this method is impracticable. The panel shall give reasonable notice of the time, place and manner of the conference.
4. Record of conference. Unless otherwise directed by the panel, the conference will not be stenographically recorded. The panel will reduce the actions taken at the conference to a written order or, if the conference takes place less than seven days before the beginning of the hearing, may make a statement on the record summarizing the actions taken at the conference.

(c) Settlement negotiations before a settlement commissioner.

1. Appointment of settlement commissioner. The panel, upon the motion of a party or upon its own motion, may request the panel to appoint another Commissioner, not necessarily a member of the panel, to conduct settlement negotiations. The order appointing the settlement commissioner may confine the scope of settlement negotiations to specified issues. The order shall direct the settlement commissioner to report to the Chief Commissioner on the panel assigned to hear the matter within specified time periods.

2. Duties of settlement commissioner. The settlement commissioner shall convene and preside over conferences and settlement negotiations between the parties and assess the practicalities of a potential settlement.
 - (i) The settlement commissioner shall report to the Chief Commissioner of the assigned panel describing the status of the settlement negotiations, evaluating settlement prospects, and recommending the termination or continuation of settlement negotiations.
3. Termination of settlement negotiations. Settlement negotiations shall terminate upon the order of the panel issued after consultation with the settlement commissioner.

(8) HEARING PROCEDURES.

(a) Date and place of hearing.

1. Date. The hearing shall commence not later than 120 days following the issuance of the charge under Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(b\), unless it is impracticable to do so. If the hearing cannot be commenced within this time period, the panel shall notify in writing all parties, the aggrieved persons on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the Administrator, of the reasons for the delay.
2. Place. The hearing will be conducted at a place in the vicinity in which the discriminatory housing practice is alleged to have occurred or to be about to occur.
3. Notification of time and place for hearing. The charge issued under Rule 186-2-.02\(6\)\(b\) will specify the time, date and place for the hearing. The panel may change the time, date or place of the hearing, or may temporarily adjourn or continue a hearing for good cause shown. If such a change is made or the hearing is temporarily adjourned, the panel shall give the parties at least five days notice of the revised time, date and place for the hearing, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

- (b) Conduct of hearings. The hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (O.C.G.A. Section 50-13-13 et seq.)

- (c) Waiver of right to appear. If all parties waive their right to appear before the panel or to present evidence and arguments, it is not necessary for the panel to conduct an oral hearing. Such waivers shall be made in writing and filed with the Chief Commissioner of the panel. Where waivers are submitted by all parties, the panel shall make a record of the relevant written evidence submitted by the parties and pleadings submitted by the parties with respect to the issues in the proceeding. These documents shall constitute the evidence in the proceeding and the decision shall be based upon this evidence. Such hearings shall be deemed to commence on the first day that written evidence may be submitted for the record.
- (d) Evidence. The rules of evidence contained in the Civil Practice Act shall apply to the presentation of evidence in hearings under this part.
- (e) In camera and protective orders. The panel may limit discovery or the introduction of evidence, or may issue such protective or other orders necessary to protect privileged communications. If the panel determines that information in documents containing privileged matters should be made available to a party, the panel may order the preparation of a summary or extract of the nonprivileged matter contained in the original.
- (f) Exhibits.
1. Identification. All exhibits offered into evidence shall be numbered sequentially and marked with a designation identifying the party offering the exhibit.
 2. Exchange of exhibits. One copy of each exhibit offered into evidence must be furnished to each of the parties and to the panel. If the panel does not fix a time for the exchange of exhibits, the parties shall exchange copies of exhibits at the earliest practicable time before the commencement of the hearing. Exhibits submitted as rebuttal evidence are not required to be exchanged before the commencement of the hearing if the submission of such evidence could not reasonably be anticipated at that time.
- (g) Authenticity. The authenticity of all documents furnished to the parties as required under Rule 186-2-.04\(8\)\(f\) and submitted as proposed exhibits in advance of the hearing shall be admitted unless a party files a written objection to the exhibit before the commencement of the hearing. Upon a clear showing of good cause for failure to file such a written objection, the panel may permit the party to challenge the authenticity.
- (h) Stipulations. The parties may stipulate to any pertinent facts by oral agreement at the hearing or by written agreement at any time. Stipulations may be submitted into evidence at any time before the end of the hearing. When received into evidence, the stipulation is binding on the parties.

(i) Record of hearing.

1. Hearing record. All oral hearings shall be recorded and transcribed by a reporter designated by, and under the supervision of, the panel. The original transcript shall be a part of the record and shall constitute the sole official transcript. All exhibits introduced as evidence shall be marked for identification and incorporated as a part of the record. Transcripts may be obtained by the parties and by the public from the official reporter at rates not to exceed the applicable rates fixed by the contract with the reporter.
2. Corrections. Corrections to the official transcript will be permitted upon motion of a party. Motions for correction must be submitted within five days of the receipt of the transcript. Corrections of the official transcript will be permitted only where errors of substance are involved and upon the approval of the panel.

(j) Arguments and briefs.

1. Arguments. Following the submission of evidence at an oral hearing, the panel may hear oral arguments at the hearing. The panel may limit the time permitted for such arguments to avoid unreasonable delay.
2. Submission of written briefs. The panel may permit the submission of written briefs following the adjournment of the oral hearing. Written briefs shall be simultaneously filed by all parties and shall be due not later than 30 days following the adjournment of the oral hearing.

(k) End of hearing.

1. Oral hearings. Where there is an oral hearing, the hearing ends on the day of the adjournment of the oral hearing or, where written briefs are permitted, on the date that the written briefs are due.
2. Hearing on written record. Where the parties have waived an oral hearing, the hearing ends on the date set by the panel as the final date for the receipt of submissions by the parties.

(l) Receipt of evidence following hearing.

1. Following the end of the hearing, no additional evidence may be accepted into the record, except with the permission of the panel. The panel may receive additional evidence upon a determination that new and material evidence was not readily available before the end of the hearing, the evidence has been timely submitted, and its acceptance will not unduly prejudice the rights of the parties. However, the panel shall include in the record any motions for attorneys' fees (including supporting documentation), and any approved corrections to the transcripts.

(9) DISMISSALS AND DECISIONS.

(a) Dismissal.

1. Election of judicial determination. If the complainant, the respondent, or the aggrieved person on whose behalf a complaint was filed makes a timely election to have the claims asserted in the charge decided in a civil action under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-213\(a\) of the Act, the panel shall dismiss the administrative proceeding.
2. Effect of a civil action on administrative proceeding. The panel may not continue an administrative proceeding under this part regarding an alleged discriminatory housing practice after the beginning of the trial of a civil action commenced by the aggrieved person under an act of Congress or the Georgia Fair Housing Law seeking relief with respect to that discriminatory housing practice. If such a trial is commenced, the panel shall dismiss the administrative proceeding. The commencement and maintenance of a civil action for appropriate temporary or preliminary relief under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-209\(f\)\(1\) or proceedings for such relief under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-217 of the Act does not affect administrative proceedings under this part.

(b) Initial decision of panel.

1. In general. Within the time period set forth in paragraph 4. of this section, the panel shall issue an initial decision including findings of fact and conclusions of law upon each material issue of fact or law presented on the record. The initial decision of the panel shall be based on the record of the proceeding.
2. Finding against respondent. If the panel finds that a respondent has engaged, or is about to engage, in a discriminatory housing practice, the panel shall issue an initial decision against the respondent and order such relief as may be appropriate. The relief may include, but is not limited to, the following:
 - (i) The panel may order the respondent to pay damages to the aggrieved person (including damages caused by humiliation and embarrassment).
 - (ii) The panel may provide for injunctive relief or such other equitable relief as may be appropriate. No such order may affect any contract, sale, encumbrance or lease consummated before the issuance of the initial decision that involved a bona fide purchaser, encumbrance or tenant without actual knowledge of the charge issued under Rule 186-2-.03\(6\)\(b\).

- (iii) To vindicate the public interest, the panel may assess a civil penalty against the respondent. The amount of the civil penalty may not exceed:
 - (I) $10,000, if the respondent has not been adjudged to have committed any prior discriminatory housing practice in any administrative hearing or civil action permitted under the Georgia Fair Housing Law, the Federal Fair Housing Act, or any other State or local fair housing law, or in any licensing or regulatory proceeding conducted by a Federal, State or local governmental agency.

- (iv) If the acts constituting the discriminatory housing practice that is the subject of the charge were committed by the same natural person who has previously been adjudged, in any administrative proceeding or civil action, to have committed acts constituting a discriminatory housing practice, the time periods set forth in paragraphs 2. (iii)(I),(II) and (III) of this section do not apply.

- (v) In a proceeding involving two or more respondents, the panel may assess a civil penalty as provided under paragraph 2. of this section against each respondent that the panel determines has been engaged or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice.
3. Finding in favor of respondent. If the panel finds that a respondent has not engaged, and is not about to engage, in a discriminatory housing practice, the panel shall make an initial decision dismissing the charge.
 4. Date of issuance. The panel shall issue an initial decision within 60 days after the end of the hearing, unless it is impracticable to do so. If the panel is unable to issue the initial decision within this time period (or within any succeeding 60-day period following the initial 60-day period), the panel shall notify in writing all parties, the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the Administrator, of the reasons for the delay.
- (c) Service of initial decision. Simultaneously with the issuance of the initial decision, the panel shall serve the initial decision on all parties, the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the Administrator.  - (d) Resolution of charge. At any time before the issuance of a final decision under Rule 186-2-.04\(9\)\(e\), the parties may submit an agreement resolving the charge. The agreement must be signed by the Administrator, the respondent, and the aggrieved person upon whose behalf the charge was issued. The panel shall accept the agreement by issuing an initial decision based on the agreed findings. The submission of an agreement resolving the charge constitutes a waiver of any right to challenge or contest the validity of a decision entered in accordance with the agreement.
 - (e) Final decision.
 1. Issuance of final decision by the entire board of commissioners. The Board of Commissioners may review any finding of fact, conclusion of law, or order contained in the initial decision of the panel and issue a final decision in the proceeding. A majority of the Board may affirm, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, the initial decision or remand the initial decision for further proceedings. The Board shall serve the final decision on all parties no later than 30 days from the date of issuance of the initial decision of the panel. The final decision shall be served on all parties, the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the Administrator.

2. No final decision by the board. If the Board does not serve a final decision within the time period described above, the initial decision of the panel will become the final decision of the Commission. 3. Public disclosure. The Commission shall make public disclosure of each final decision.
4. Decisions on remand. If the Board remands the decision for further proceedings, the panel shall issue an initial decision on remand within 60 days of the date of issuance of the Board's decision, unless it is impractical to do so. If the panel is unable to issue the initial decision within this time period (or within any succeeding 60-day period following the initial 60-day period), the panel shall notify in writing the parties, the aggrieved person on whose behalf the charge was filed, and the Administrator, of the reasons for the delay.

(f) Action upon issuance of a final decision.

1. Licensed or regulated businesses. If a final decision includes a finding that a respondent has engaged or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice in the course of a business that is subject to licensing or regulation by a Federal, State or local governmental agency, the Administrator will notify the governmental agency of the decision by:
 - (i) Sending copies of the findings of fact, conclusions of law and the final decision to the governmental agency by certified mail; and
 - (ii) Recommending appropriate disciplinary action to the governmental agency, including, where appropriate, the suspension or revocation of the license of the respondent.
 - (iii) The Administrator shall notify the appropriate governmental agencies within 30 days alter the date of issuance of the final decision, unless a petition for judicial review of the final decision as described in Rule 186-2-.04\(10\) has been filed before the issuance of the notification of the agency. If such a petition has been filed, the Administrator will provide the notification to the governmental agency within 30 days of the date that the final decision is affirmed upon review. If a petition for judicial review is timely filed following the notification of the governmental agency, the Administrator will promptly notify the government agency of the petition and withdraw his or her recommendation.

2. Notification to the Attorney General. If a final decision includes a finding that a respondent has engaged or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing practice and another final decision including such a finding was issued under this part within the five years preceding the date of issuance of the final decision, the Administrator will notify the Attorney General of the decisions by sending a copy of the final decisions in each administrative proceeding.

(g) Attorney's fees and costs.

1. Following the issuance of the final decision under Rule 186-2-.04\(9\)\(e\), any prevailing party may apply for attorneys' fees and costs. The panel will issue an initial decision awarding or denying such fees and costs. The initial decision will become the final decision of the Commission unless the Board reviews the initial decision and issues a final decision on fees and costs within 30 days. The recovery of reasonable attorney's fees and costs will be permitted as follows:
 - (i) If the respondent is the prevailing party, an intervenor will be liable for reasonable attorney's fees and costs only to the extent that the intervenor's participation in the administrative proceeding was frivolous or vexatious, or was for the purpose of harassment.
 - (ii) To the extent that an intervenor is a prevailing party, the respondent will be liable for reasonable attorney's fees unless special circumstances make the recovery of such fees and costs unjust.

(10) JUDICIAL REVIEW AND ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL DECISION.

(a) Judicial review of final decision.

1. Petition for review. Any party adversely affected by a final decision under Rule 186-2-.04\(9\)\(e\) may file a petition in the appropriate State Superior Court for review of the decision under O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-215\(a\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law. The petition must be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of the final decision.
2. No petition for review. If no petition for review is filed under paragraph 1. within 45 days from the date of issuance of the final decision, the findings of fact and final decision shall be conclusive in connection with any petition for enforcement described under Rule 186-2-.04\(10\)\(a\)1. filed there after by the Administrator, and in connection with any petition for enforcement described under Rule 186-2-.04\(10\)\(a\)2.

(b) Enforcement of final decision.

1. Enforcement by the Commission. Following the issuance of a final decision under Rule 186-2-.04\(9\)\(e\), the Administrator may petition the appropriate State Superior Court for the enforcement of the final decision and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order after the final decision has been made an order of the court in accordance with O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-216.
2. Enforcement by others. If before the expiration of 60 days from the date of issuance of the final decision under Rule 186-2-.04\(9\)\(e\), no petition for review of the final decision described under Rule 186-2-.04\(10\)\(a\) has been filed, and the Administrator has not sought enforcement of the final decision as described in paragraph 1. of this section, any person entitled to relief under the final decision may petition the appropriate State Superior Court for the enforcement of the final decision.

- (1) Policy. It is the policy of the State of Georgia to provide, within constitutional limitations, for fair housing throughout the United States. The provisions of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended (O.C.G.A. 8-3-200et seq.) make it unlawful to discriminate in the sale, rental, and financing of housing, and in the provision of brokerage and appraisal services, because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-202\(a\)\(3\) of the Georgia Fair Housing Law, as amended, makes it unlawful to make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published, any notice, statement, or advertisement, with respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling, that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin, or an intention to make any such preference, limitation, or discrimination. However, the prohibitions of the act regarding familial status do not apply with respect to "housing for older persons", as defined in O.C.G.A. Section 8-3-205 of the Act.
- (2) Purpose. The purpose of this part is to assist all advertising media, advertising agencies and all other persons who use advertising to make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published, advertisements with respect to the sale, rental, or financing of dwellings which are in compliance with the requirements of the Fair Housing Act. These regulations also describe the matters this Department will review in evaluating compliance with the Fair Housing Act in connection with investigations of complaints alleging discriminatory housing practices involving advertising.

 - (a) "Assistant Secretary" means the Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.
 - (b) "General Counsel" means the General Counsel of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

- (c) "Dwelling" means any building, structure, or portion thereof which is occupied as, or designed or intended for occupancy as, a residence by one or more families, and any vacant land which is offered for sale or lease for the construction or location thereon of any such building, structure, or portion thereof.

- (e) "Person" includes one or more individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations, labor organizations, legal representatives, mutual companies, joint-stock companies, trusts, unincorporated organizations, trustees, trustees in cases under Title 11 of the United States Code, receivers, and fiduciaries.

- (g) "Discriminatory housing practice" means an act that is unlawful under Sections 804, 805, 806, or 818 of the Fair Housing Act.
- (h) "Handicap" means, with respect to a person:
 - 1. A physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities;
 - 2. A record of having such an impairment; or
 - 3. Being regarded as having such an impairment. This term does not include current, illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)). For purposes of this part, an individual shall not be considered to have a handicap solely because that individual is a transvestite.

 - 1. A parent or another person having legal custody of such individual or individuals; or

The protection afforded against discrimination on the basis of familial status shall apply to any person who is pregnant or is in the process of securing legal custody of any individual who has not attained the age of 18 years.

(4) Scope.

- (a) General. This part describes the matters the Commission will review in evaluating compliance with the Georgia Fair Housing Law in connection with investigations of complaints alleging discriminatory housing practices involving advertising. Use of these criteria will be considered by the Administrator in making determinations as to whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur.
1. Advertising media. This part provides criteria for use by advertising media in determining whether to accept and publish advertising regarding sales or rental transactions. Use of these criteria will be considered by the Administrator in making determinations as to whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur.
 2. Persons placing advertisements. A failure by persons placing advertisements to use the criteria contained in this part, when found in connection with the investigation of a complaint alleging the making or use of discriminatory advertisements, will be considered by the Administrator in making a determination of reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur.
- (b) Affirmative advertising efforts. Nothing in this part shall be construed to restrict advertising efforts designed to attract persons to dwellings who would not ordinarily be expected to apply, when such efforts are pursuant to an affirmative marketing program or undertaken to remedy the effects of prior discrimination in connection with the advertising or marketing of dwellings.

(5) USE OF WORDS, PHRASES, SYMBOLS, AND VISUAL AIDS.

- (a) General. The following words, phrases, symbols, and forms typify those most often used in residential real estate advertising to convey either overt or tacit discriminatory preferences or limitations. In considering a complaint under the Georgia Fair Housing Law, the Commission will normally consider the use of these and comparable words, phrases, symbols, and forms to indicate a possible violation of the Act and to establish a need for further proceedings on the complaint, if it is apparent from the context of the usage that discrimination within the meaning of the act is likely to result.
1. Words descriptive of dwelling, landlord, and tenants. White private home, Colored home, Jewish home, Hispanic residence, adult building.
 2. Words indicative of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin:
 - (i) Race - Negro, Black, Caucasian, Oriental, American Indian;

- (ii) Color - White, Black, Colored;
 - (iii) Religion - Protestant, Christian, Catholic, Jew;
 - (iv) National origin - Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Philippine, Polish, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Chicano, African, Hispanic, Chinese, Indian, Latino;
 - (v) Sex - the exclusive use of words in advertisements, including those involving the rental of separate units in a single or multi-family dwelling, stating or tending to imply that the housing being advertised is available to persons of only one sex and not the other, except where the sharing of living areas is involved. Nothing in this part restricts advertisements of dwellings used exclusively for dormitory facilities by educational institutions.
 - (vi) Handicap - crippled, blind, deaf, mentally ill, retarded, impaired, handicapped, physically fit. Nothing in this part restricts the inclusion of information about the availability of accessible housing in advertising of dwellings.
 - (vii) Familial status - adults, children, singles, mature persons. Nothing in this part restricts advertisements of dwellings which are intended and operated for occupancy by older persons and which constitute "housing for older persons" as defined in these rules.
 - (viii) Catch words - Words and phrases used in a discriminatory context should be avoided, e.g., "restricted", "exclusive", "private", "integrated", "traditional", "board approval" or "membership approval."
3. Symbols or logotypes. Symbols or logotypes which imply or suggest race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
 4. Colloquialism. Words or phrases used regionally or locally which imply or suggest race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
 5. Directions to real estate for sale or rent (use of maps or written instructions). Directions can imply a discriminatory preference, limitation, or exclusion. For example, references to real estate location made in terms of racial or national origin significant landmarks, such as an existing black development (signal to blacks) or an existing development known for its exclusion of minorities (signal to whites). Specific directions which make reference to a racial or national origin significant area may indicate a preference. References to a synagogue, congregation or parish may also indicate a religious preference.

6. Area (location) description. Names of facilities which cater to a particular racial, national origin or religious group, such as country club or private school designations, or names of facilities which are used exclusively by one sex may indicate a preference.

(6) Selective use of advertising media or content.

(a) General.

1. The selective use of advertising media or content when particular combinations there of are used exclusively with respect to various housing developments or sites can lead to discriminatory results and may indicate a violation of the Georgia Fair Housing Law. For example, the use of English language media alone or the exclusive use of media catering to the majority population in an area, when, in such area, there are also available non-English language or other minority media, may have discriminatory impact. Similarly, the selective use of human models in advertisements may have discriminatory impact. The following are examples of the selective use of advertisements which may be discriminatory:
 - (i) Selective geographic advertisements. Such selective use may involve the strategic placement of billboards; brochure advertisements distributed within a limited geographic area by hand or in the mail; advertising in particular geographic coverage editions of major metropolitan newspapers or in newspapers of limited circulation which are mainly advertising segment of the community; or displays or announcements available only in selected sales offices.
 - (ii) Selective use of equal opportunity slogan or logo. When placing advertisements, such selective use may involve placing the equal housing opportunity slogan or logo in advertising reaching some geographic areas, but not others, or with respect to some properties but not others.
 - (iii) Selective use of human models when conducting an advertising campaign. Selective advertising may involve an advertising campaign using human models primarily in media that cater to one racial or national origin segment of the population without a complementary advertising campaign that is directed at other groups. Another example may involve use of racially mixed models by a developer to advertise one development and not others. Similar care must be exercised in advertising in publications or other media directed at one particular sex, or at persons without children. Such selective advertising may involve the use of human models of members of only one sex, or of adults only, in displays, photographs or drawings to indicate preferences for one sex or the other, or for adults to the exclusion of children.

(7) Fair housing policy and practices.

(a) General.

1. In the investigation of complaints, the Administrator will consider the implementation of fair housing policies and practices provided in this section as evidence of compliance with the prohibitions against discrimination in advertising under the Georgia Fair Housing Law.
 - (i) Use of Equal Housing Opportunity logotype, statement, or slogan. All advertising of residential real estate for sale, rent, or financing should contain an equal housing opportunity logotype, statement, or slogan as a means of educating the homeseeking public that the property is available to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. The choice of logotype, statement or slogan will depend on the type of media used (visual or auditory) and, in space advertising, on the size of the advertisement. Table I (see Appendix I) indicates suggested use of the logotype, statement, or slogan and size of logotype. Table II (see Appendix I) contains copies of the suggested Equal Housing Opportunity logotype, statement and slogan.
 - (ii) Use of human models. Human models in photographs, drawings, or other graphic techniques may not be used to indicate exclusiveness because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. If models are used in display advertising campaigns, the models should be clearly definable as reasonably representing majority and minority groups in the metropolitan area, both sexes, and, when appropriate, families with children. Models, if used, should portray persons in an equal social setting and indicate to the general public that the housing is open to all without regard to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin, and is not for the exclusive use of one such group.
 - (iii) Coverage of local laws. Where the Equal Housing Opportunity statement is used, the advertisement may also include a statement regarding the coverage of any local fair housing or human rights ordinance prohibiting discrimination in the sale, rental or financing of dwellings.

(iv) Notification of fair housing policy:

- (I) Employees. All publishers of advertisements, advertising agencies, and firms engaged in the sale, rental or financing of real estate should provide a printed copy of their nondiscrimination policy to each employee and officer.
- (II) Clients. All publishers or advertisements and advertising agencies should post a copy of their nondiscrimination policy in a conspicuous location wherever persons place advertising and should have copies available for all firms and persons using their advertising services.
- (III) Publishers' notice. All publishers should publish at the beginning of the real estate advertising section a notice such as that appearing in Table III (see Appendix I). The notice may include a statement regarding the coverage of any local fair housing or human rights ordinance prohibiting discrimination in the sale, rental or financing of dwellings.

Appendix I to Rule 186-2-.06 et seq. - Fair Housing Advertising.

The following three tables may serve as a guide for the use of the Equal Housing Opportunity logotype, statement, slogan, and publisher's notice for advertising:

Table I

A simple formula can guide the real estate advertiser in using the Equal Housing Opportunity logotype, statement, or slogan.

In all space advertising (advertising in regularly printed media such as newspapers or magazines) the following standards should be used:

Size of Advertisement	Size of logotype in inches
1/2 page or larger	2×2

1/8 page up to 1/2 page	1×1
4 column inches to 1/8 page	1/2×1/2
Less than 4 column inches	(1)
1/ Do not use less than 4 column inches.

In any other advertisements, if other logotypes are used in the advertisement, then the Equal Housing Opportunity logo should be of a size at least equal to the largest of the other logotypes; if no other logotypes are used, then the type should be bold display face which is clearly visible. Alternatively, when no other logotypes are used, 3 to 5 percent of an advertisement may be devoted to a statement. The type should be bold display face which is clearly visible. Alternatively, when no other logotypes are used, 3 to 5 percent of an advertisement may be devoted to a statement of the equal housing opportunity policy. In space advertising which is less than 4 column inches (one column 4 inches long or two columns 2 inches long) of a page in size, the Equal Housing Opportunity slogan should be used. Such advertisements may be grouped with other advertisements under a caption which states that the housing is available to all without regard to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.
